Licence agreement for the software package "NETGEN (research version)"

The Institut für Mathematik (Arbeitsgruppe Numerische Mathematik und Optimierung), Johannes Kepler Universität Linz, Altenberger Str. 69, A – 4040 Linz, Austria (in the following addressed as licenser) gives to (in the following addressed as licensee)

Name: ....

Institute: ....

University: ....

Address: ....

Country: ....

the software package "NETGEN (research version)", developed by Joachim Schöberl, for temporally unrestricted use. The licensee agrees to the following license stipulations:

- The program package "NETGEN (research version)" as a whole or parts of it is to be used only for the purpose of research, teaching and the publishing of scientific results with the appropriate citation of "NETGEN (research version)".
- The delivered software can be used by the institute for non-commercial purposes only.
- No sale or commercial use of "NETGEN (research version)" as a whole, or of parts or extensions of "NETGEN (research version)", or of software or data produced with "NETGEN (research version)" is permitted.
- "NETGEN (research version)" or parts of "NETGEN (research version)" shall not be included or linked with any other programs. By ordering special stipulations it is possible to get an extra license for using "NETGEN (research version)" or data produced with "NETGEN (research version)" in other programs.
- Any manipulations and extensions of "NETGEN (research version)" as delivered which are developed by the licensee will be subject to the above stipulations. Furthermore the licensee will inform the licenser about all extensions of "NETGEN (research version)" and the licenser has the unrestricted rights to such extensions.
- No copies of "NETGEN (research version)" may be made and distributed by the licensee. All copies of "NETGEN (research version)" must be obtained from the licenser.
- The licenser does not assume any liability for the program package "NETGEN (research version)" and the results of work obtained with its use.
- The licenser can denounce the license agreement with a two month notice. The licensee lies under the obligation to give back the program package "NETGEN (research version)" as a whole or to delete all on the licensee's data processors or memories installed software from the program package "NETGEN (research version)". The licensee confirms this by a signed letter.

If this licence agreement is ordered in combination with the licence agreement of the Insitut für Computeranwendungen (ICA 3), University of Stuttgart, Pfaffenwaldring 27, 70569 Stuttgart, Germany, for the program package "ug3", the licensee can link the program package NETGEN only with the program package "ug3" for research and non-commercial purposes only. It is emphasized that all stipulations contained in this license agreement and in the license agreement for the program package "ug3" will not be changed altered through this link process.
